

After-Game Dance Set At North

"Sky Way to Victory" will be the theme of an after-the-game dance at North High School tomorrow evening. The dance, sponsored by the Saxon junior class, will follow the North-Morningside game at the North High Stadium.

Admission to the dance, which will be held in the gym from 10 to 11:30 p.m. is 50 cents with student body card. Admission for non-cardholders will be 75 cents.

"The Rockin' Rebels," who recently recorded the hit "Wild Weekend" will play for the Saxon dancers. Dress will be school clothes, says junior class president Amy Kawaguchi.

Conference Meets Today

Mrs. Earl Jordan, member of the Torrance Youth Welfare Commission, will present a paper on the commission's "operational procedure for eliminating salacious material from literature racks" during the national conference of the Citizens for Decent Literature.

The group will meet in Chicago beginning today. The three-day conference will be attended by 500 delegates.

Mrs. Jordan's attendance at the conference was requested by the Youth Welfare Commission and approved by the City Council two weeks ago. The commission was established by the council last year to investigate solutions to juvenile problems in Torrance.

... College

ing a final decision of the Peninsula site.

About 175 acres in the 330-acre site at Crest Road and Hawthorne Boulevard is being considered for the college site. Final approval has been held up because of uncertain costs of acquiring the site.

Private subdivision is underway on residentially zoned land within the site, according to Harry Harmon, chief of facilities planning for the state college system, but the industrially zoned land remains vacant.

APPEAR TODAY . . . The Torrance High School marching band will help to celebrate the re-opening of the improved Downtown Business District today. Shown here studying music for today's performance, slated for the El Prado Park area at 3 p.m., are Drum Major Marc Billigmeier, band member Jerry Williams, and pep squad member Joyce Bynum. The band, under the baton of Leo Sandoval, will be accompanied by the Tartar Pep Squad under the direction of Miss Jane Orr.

CLOSE CALL . . . Allen W. Thor, 23, of 2183 Sepulveda Blvd., escaped with a fractured left arm and contusions after a Santa Fe freight train pushed his light vehicle nearly a block in the predawn hours of Monday. Thor's panel truck was struck at the Cabrillo Street crossing just north of Sepulveda. James F. Shoemaker Jr., 38, of Los Angeles was listed as the train's engineer. (Herald Photo)
